FEATURING

1. UWOMJ: 25, 50, & 75 years ago
2. The legacy of Dr Earl Russell: A new era of pain medicine at Western University and Canada’s first pain medicine residency program
3. An overview of the opioid crisis: Framing the opioid crisis in the context of the global drug problem
4. The case for a student run clinic in London
5. Cannabis for pain management: Pariah or panacea? Historical perspectives and pharmacological mechanisms
6. The Schulich Pain Medicine residency: An interview with Dr Geoff Bellingham